

JOB TITLE: COO

LOCATION: Los Angeles, CA

Summary: This innovative restaurant franchising company has been successful ever since opening the doors of its first store in February 2006 in Southern California. It has quickly grown to 9 stores that have been met with great excitement from consumers. A few dozen franchised stores are currently under development.

As successful as they've been so far, they are only at the beginning. Their forecast calls for the concept to become a recognizable brand name within 24 months, to open 100 stores before the end of 2010, to and be the recognized leader in the category within five years.

The concept has a pricing and service strategy that give it a distinct edge on its competition. It is focused on customer participation, individual choice, and healthier options with a high-quality product that consumers are wild about.

Job Responsibilities: Operate 20 franchised stores, 3 corporate stores, and help with the rapid expansion to 300 units within 3 years time frame.

Requirements:

- Proven track record with a franchised food concept managing at least 500 multiple units
- Experience as a COO or VP Operations in a high-growth company
- Honesty and integrity
